

Landscape, swampland and extra dimensions

I will discuss the possibility that the smallness of some physical parameters signals a universe at a large distance corner in the string landscape of vacua. Such parameters can be the scales of dark energy and supersymmetry breaking, which should then be tied to a large ‘dark’ dimension at the micron scale, as dictated by the large distance swampland conjecture.

Primary author: ANTONIADIS, Ignatios

Presenter: ANTONIADIS, Ignatios